The 200 MIDI files in this category contain works often identified as ‘salon’ music. These are generally short pieces, often with virtuosic display and always with a tune. Music of this type is rarely heard today, so some of the items in this category may be unfamiliar. Many of the works were written in the 19th century, some are from the early 20th century. Because ‘light classical’ embodies more than salon music, works such as Rhapsody in Blue, and In A Monastery Garden are included. Earliest recordings are from 1907.

Of the 125 composers in this category, the best known are Cécile Chaminade, Franz Bendel, Rudolf Friml, Benjamin Godard, Victor Herbert, Fritz Kreisler, Moritz Moszkowski, Ethelbert Nevin and Johann Strauss.

Over 100 pianists play the works in this category. These include in-house pianists such as Robert Armbruster, Genevieve Pitot, Howard Brockway, Edgar Fairchild (née Milton Suskind) and Marguerite Volavy. Well known pianists include Sergei Rachmaninoff, Moriz Rosenthal, Vladimir de Pachmann, Josef Lhevinne and Josef Hofmann.

Background stories

1. Harriet Ware (1877-1962) is one of the few female composers of the times to have achieved some level of fame in her lifetime. Another is Cécile Chaminade. Ware’s Song of the Sea was published in 1910, but did not appear on reproducing piano roll until 1937 when it was recorded by popular piano roll artist Frank Milne (1887-1959).
2. Josef Lhévinne (1874-1944) recorded the Schulz-Evler transcription Blue Danube Arabesque in 1906 for Welte, for Ampico in 1926 and on disc for Victor in 1928. All these recordings are highly regarded.
3. Genevieve Pitot (1901-1980) only recorded for the Duo-Art reproducing piano, making nearly 45 recordings from 1919 to the late 1920s. She studied with Alfred Cortot at age 12, and all her recordings are highly regarded for their stylistic playing and technique.
4. Charles Steinway (1857-1919) was President of Steinway & Sons. He composed a number of salon pieces for the piano, recording some of these for the Welte-Mignon around 1916. He was a grandson of the founder of the firm.
5. Marguerite Volavy (1886-1951) was a prolific recording artist for numerous piano roll companies. She made many roll recordings, sometimes using pseudonyms such as Felix Gerdts and George Kerr. It is estimated that she made over 230 roll recordings. She studied with Leschetizky, and appeared as soloist with the Russian Symphony Orchestra in New York on February 13 1915, and again on March 21 1915, playing the first American performance of Scriabin’s Prometheus—A Poem of Fire performing on a ‘chromola’, otherwise known as a ‘colour keyboard’.
